

EDUCATION LEADERSHIP COACH

Empowering educators to inspire the leaders of tomorrow

By equipping educators with the highest-quality coaching skills we can empower them to deliver greater engagement, enhanced capability, and more successful transformation and change. This all leads to performance targets that are exceeded with ease, and more content and engaged team members.

Our dedicated and ICF-accredited Education Leadership Coach programme has been carefully designed to exactly meet the needs of professionals across education settings, ensuring you can develop your own truly innovative and impactful coaching culture.

The Case for Coaching in Education

We know that in today's rapidly-evolving educational landscape, educators are no longer simply instructors. Instead they're mentors, guides and role models, shaping the very essence and future of society.

With advanced coaching skills, you're able to encourage critical thinking, creativity and new levels of resilience in students and in faculty alike.

And with over 25 years of experience, we know that this transformative approach empowers educators to inspire and develop the next generation of leaders, preparing them to step into a better future.

Who is the programme for?

Ideal for organizations and individuals who are looking to expand the professional and personal toolkit of educators in their setting, this certification builds a coach-like approach across skillsets and culture.

Blending high performance behaviours with emotional intelligence insights, it unlocks full potential and provides fresh insights through:

- Developing coaching skills & mindset
- Powerful questioning
- Active listening
- Working on real-world challenges
- Building a personal leadership vision.

Participants receive on-demand support from our highly-accredited coaching faculty, all chosen for their leadership and transformational expertise.

Programme Context

Our programmes have been developed and accredited through the globally recognised International Coaching Federation (ICF) since 2003, ensuring that our standards and delivery of content align with the most up-to-date and relevant practices in Leadership Coaching.

The full programme is broken down into four modules – on completion the participants will have the opportunity to become a member of the ICF as an Associated Certified Coach (ACC). Participants are supported through the programme using different modalities to ensure ongoing learning, development, reflection and support. This is achieved through:

Online self-paced learning and preparation

Live participative classes with expert coach trainers

Suggested tools to build into their educational toolkit

Opportunities to coach and be coached

Post programme group supervision and reflection calls

Expert faculty support

The Learning Journey

Education Leadership Coach to ICF Associate Certified Coach (ACC) Credential Standard

How is the programme accredited?

Each module is independently accredited and provides a 'certificate of completion'. These build participants' ICF credentials, and completing our full programme can lead to formal ACC ICF Coach accreditation.

How long will the programme take to complete?

Completing modules 1, 2, 3 & 4 will take between 4 and 12 months, with the flexibility to accommodate different schedules. Participants have the option to complete a module and then resume further modules at a later stage.

How much time will I need to complete it outside of the live session?

To comply with ICF standards the complete programme requires 21 learning hours outside of the live classes which is made up of online self-paced learning, practical application and group supervision sessions.

Additional Inspirational Coaching Services

One-To-One Coaching

Effective leadership coaching is so much more than simply developing the leader's own high performance, it takes the wider context into account and considers the culture, colleagues, and other stakeholders too, as well as delivery of an organization's wider purpose, vision, and values.

Team Coaching

Particularly effective when you need to embed culture and purpose, Team Coaching is a great way to further develop successful teams, manage people as part of change, and address a myriad of other challenges

Leader As Coach

Today's complex world of work certainly requires a more agile leadership style. Upskilling leaders and managers to coach and mentor their people helps achieve high performance and grows a leader's confidence to provide regular developmental feedback.

Diagnostic Tools

Our coaches have access to a range of individual and team psychometric assessments and tools, including personality profiling, team psychometrics, DiSC, Insights, and the Hogan Suite. We also use our own proprietary my360plus tool, which is based on the Schroder high-performance behaviours model.

Measurable Impact

From off-the-shelf surveys to tailored qualitative and quantitative feedback mechanisms, we can measure impact and ROI of all aspects of our coaching support and training.
